Adamera Interview with Greg McCoach

Vancouver, B.C., April 16, 2020 - Adamera Minerals Corp. (TSX V: ADZ; OTC: DDNFF) provides a recent video interview with Greg McCoach of ‘The Mining Speculator’. In the interview, Mr. McCoach and Mark Kolebaba, the President of Adamera discuss the significance of the recent earn in agreement with Hochschild Mining PLC (LON: HOC) on the Cooke Mountain Project. The discussion touches on several key issues including:

- 1) Adamera’s past exploration efforts have resulted in the development of a robust selection of drill ready targets that can now be tested formally and definitively under the earn in agreement with Hochschild.
- 2) The Cooke Mountain project is an established mining district with infrastructure including a nearby mill that could be acquired in the future if warranted.
- 3) Adamera also maintains two other projects in the area that are 100% owned by Adamera.
- 4) New induced polarization (IP) inversion data provided by Hochschild prior to signing the agreement shows new shallow targets and demonstrates interest for looking deeper.
- 5) Top targets in the Cooke Mountain project include Oversight where the company has made several drill discoveries near the past producing Overlook Gold Mine, Lamefoot South and Goodfoot properties.

“I am very appreciative of the opportunity to discuss our project with Greg McCoach. Greg’s insight and passion for the mining and exploration sector is evident in his discussions and newsletter. I appreciate his continued support of Adamera and the resource sector,” says Mark Kolebaba, President and CEO of Adamera Minerals Corp.
